Vignan's University achieved the prestigious 'AA Grade' in the national-level SWAYAM-NPTEL rankings released by IIT Madras, the university's in-charge vice-chancellor Prof. K. V. Krishna Kishore announced on Thursday. He stated that in the latest rankings published by SWAYAM-NPTEL, the university secured the 29th rank at the national level, earning the highly respected AA grade.

He informed us that a large number of students from Vignan's University actively participated in various online courses conducted by NPTEL and collectively earned 4,881 course certificates. These included 145 Gold certificates, 424 Silver certificates, 2,136 Elite certificates, and 2,176 regular pass certificates, reflecting the students' strong academic performance and commitment to online learning.

In addition, the university received 61 NPTEL Star certificates, and 106 students emerged as toppers in different courses, highlighting their academic excellence at the national level. Prof. Krishna Kishore stated that the AA grade was awarded in recognition of the outstanding performance of students in the NPTEL courses conducted from July to December 2025.

He further noted that Vignan's University had proudly secured a place in the national top 100 institutions for the ninth consecutive time, calling it a matter of great pride for the institution. The achievement, he said, was the result of the collective efforts of students, the dedicated guidance of faculty members, and the continuous support and encouragement of the university management.

He added that the university would continue to motivate students towards research, innovation, and online learning, aiming to achieve even greater academic milestones in the future.

On the occasion, Vignan's Educational Institutions Chairman Dr. Lavu Rathaiah; In-Charge Vice-Chancellor Prof. K. V. Krishna Kishore; Registrar Prof. P. M. V. Rao; along with deans, heads of departments, and faculty members; congratulated the team that contributed to achieving the prestigious AA Grade.
