Achievements of VFSTR's Department of Textile Technology at BHARAT TEX 24 Global Textile Expo

Faculty members and students from the Department of Textile Technology VFSTR, made a significant impact at the BHARAT TEX 24 Global Textile Expo. The event, organized by the Consortium of Textile Export Promotion Councils (EPCS) with support from the Ministry of Textiles, Government of India, took place from February 26 to February 29, 2024, in Delhi. It served as a platform to exhibit global Technical Textile innovations.

During the expo, Dr. S. Kubera Sampath Kumar, an Associate Professor in the Department of Textile Technology, along with his team members, third-year students Mr. P. Sharuk Khan and Mr. S. Vinay, secured third place in a hackathon held under the National Technical Textile Mission (NTTM). The hackathon aimed to foster innovation and excellence in Technical Textiles as part of the National Technical Textile Mission.

This achievement not only highlights the capabilities of VFSTR's Department of Textile Technology but also showcases the potential of Indian talent to thrive in the global textile industry.
