Workshop on Linguistic Skills at the Department of English

A recent workshop on linguistic skills was successfully conducted in the Department of English, organized by Dr. A. Suresh Babu, Assistant Professor in Training and Placement. Faculty members from the Department of English actively participated in the workshop, and there was enthusiastic involvement from staff at sister colleges as well. The primary objective of the workshop was to enhance linguistic skills among faculty members, providing them with effective strategies for application in classroom teaching.

The dynamic session was led by Dr. Rosalia H. Banjour, a resource person who holds various certifications from the University of Cambridge as an examiner, presenter, and trainer. Throughout the workshop, Dr. Banjour conducted a series of activities designed not only to engage participants actively but also to offer practical insights that could be applied to their teaching methodologies. The resource person emphasized the significance of linguistic skills, highlighting their importance in the teaching-learning process.

Spanning from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., the workshop provided an extensive learning experience for all participants. The engaging sessions and practical tasks served as a platform for faculty members to comprehend and apply linguistic skills effectively. The overarching goal of the workshop was to empower faculty members to master these skills, ultimately benefiting their students in language acquisition and communication. The collaborative participation of faculty members from various institutions added value to the event, fostering a sense of shared commitment to enhancing linguistic proficiency within the academic community.

The program was co-attended by Dr. A. Sharadha, Head of EOFL.

Final Year Agricultural Engineering Student Receives Young Achiever Award at GRISAAS-2023

Mr. V. Naga Venkatanadh (201FA12009), a Final Year Agricultural Engineering Student, was honored with the prestigious Young Achiever Award during the VIIIth International Conference on Global Research Initiatives for Sustainable Agriculture & Allied Sciences (GRISAAS-2023). The event, hosted at the University of Agricultural Sciences, Raichur, Karnataka, India, unfolded from the 18th to the 20th of December 2023.

In recognition of his outstanding accomplishment, Mr. Venkatanadh received accolades from Dr. Nagabhusan, Vice Chancellor, Dean Dr. Ramesh Babu T, SAFT, and Dr. Narayan

Rao, Head of the Department. The applied faculty also expressed their heartfelt appreciation for his remarkable achievements in the field of Agricultural Engineering.

Furtherance of succession @ Department of English

Dr. Allamaneni Sharadha, with a wealth of experience in leading the Department of English, has been promoted as a Dean for International Student Affairs in the new role, she will play a pivotal part in fostering an inclusive and supportive environment for international students who are from diverse countries.

Simultaneously, the reins of the Department of English handed over to Dr. Gomatam Mohanacharyalu. As a new head of the Dept., he brings fresh perspectives and a dynamic approach to the dept. of english. His dedication to the field and commitment to excellence align seamlessly with the department's ethos.

The faculty of the Department of English came together to extend warm greetings and convey their heartfelt best wishes to both Dr. Allamaneni Sharadha and Dr. Gomatam Mohanacharyalu. The collective support from the faculty reflects the unity and enthusiasm within the department as it undergoes these positive transitions.
