Training Programme on Effective Budget Proposal Writing

The Academy for Faculty Development (AFD) organized a comprehensive training program on "Effective Budget Proposal Writing" on 12th December 2024 at board room from 2.00p.m to 5.00p.m. The session was led by Mr. Ch. Srinivas Reddy, a seasoned Chartered Accountant and Cost Management Accountant (CMA) from Visakhapatnam. The event was hosted under the guidance of Dr. B. Seetha Ramanjaneyulu, Chief of the Academy for Faculty Development, who warmly welcomed the guest and officially inaugurated the session. The training was attended by 50 Deans, Directors, Heads of Departments (HoDs), Joint Deans, Associate Deans, and MBA Finance faculty. The session primarily aimed at providing participants with a detailed understanding of budget preparation, enabling them to effectively manage and propose department-specific budgets. During the session, Mr. Srinivas Reddy elaborated on various types of budgets and their applications.

Objectives of the Programme was:

1. To understand the different types of budgets.

Vignan's Institute of Law Student, Chagam Raghavi, Excels at National Level

Vignan's Institute of Law proudly celebrates the remarkable achievements of Chagam Raghavi, a 4th-year student, for her outstanding performance in NCC at the national level. Raghavi represented Vignan's University at the prestigious Republic Day Camp 2023, demonstrating exemplary discipline, leadership, and commitment as an NCC cadet.

In addition to her participation in the Republic Day Camp, Raghavi also excelled in the Rock Climbing Camp and the Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat (EBSB) Camp. These events tested her physical endurance, adaptability, and dedication to the cause of national unity, further showcasing her exceptional capabilities.

Raghavi achieved Grade 'A' in both the B Certificate and C Certificate NCC examinations—an extraordinary accomplishment

- To identify key items to be included in department-wise budgets.
- 3. To learn how to prepare effective budget proposals for each department.

Dr. B. Seetha Ramanjaneyulu, Chief of the Academy for Faculty Development, welcomed the guest and inaugurated the session. During the interactive session, the resource person provided valuable insights into the preparation of department-wise budgets, including the categorization of expenses and revenues under appropriate heads.

Participants gained practical knowledge on developing well-structured budget proposals tailored to their departmental needs. The session emphasized the application of budgeting principles, ensuring an effective allocation of resources.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. B. Seetha Ramanjaneyulu. Dr. K. Annapurna, Professor, played a significant role in facilitating faculty participation, while Dr. K. Kalpana, Professor and Dean - SLM, along with other members, felicitated the guest as part of the VU tradition.

Topics Covered:

- 1. Different types of budgets.
- 2. Key items to include in department-wise budgets.
- 3. Steps to prepare effective budget proposals for each department.

This training proved to be a valuable opportunity for the faculty to enhance their budgeting skills, contributing significantly to the effective financial management of their respective departments.

that underscores her discipline, physical fitness, and comprehensive understanding of NCC training.

Her success brings immense pride to Vignan's Institute of Law and serves as an inspiration to fellow students, encouraging them to strive for excellence in both academics and extracurricular activities.

The University congratulates Raghavi on her remarkable achievements and remains steadfast in its commitment to nurturing well-rounded individuals prepared to lead and serve the nation.

Biotechnology Research Scholar's Achievement

Mr. Jonnalagadda Rama Koteswara Rao, a research scholar from the Department of Biotechnology, Vignan's Foundation for Science, Technology and Research, Vadlamudi, Guntur, presented his research paper titled "Statistical Optimization of L-Methionine Production via Bacteria Isolated from Dairy Effluent" at the national conference CHANGING HORIZONS IN GENETICS & BIOTECHNOLOGY (CHGB-2024). The conference was organized by the Department of Biotechnology and Genetics at Osmania University, Hyderabad, on December 9, 2024.

At the conference, Mr. Rama Koteswara Rao was honored with the Best Poster Presentation Award, accompanied by a cash prize. This noteworthy achievement is the result of research conducted under the guidance of Dr. A. Venkata Narayana, Associate Professor, Department of Biotechnology.

The School Dean, Head of the Department, and faculty members congratulated Mr. Rama Koteswara Rao on his award-winning accomplishment. His research focuses on the optimization of L-methionine production, an essential amino acid critical for human and mammalian diets to support optimal growth and efficient metabolic functions.

L-methionine has extensive applications in the food, feed, and pharmaceutical industries, making this research highly significant. The Department of Biotechnology takes pride in Mr. Rama Koteswara Rao's achievement, which reflects the department's commitment to advancing impactful scientific research.
