

Inbound and Outbound Student Exchange Program with the University of Malaysia, Kelantan

As part of the international academic collaboration between VFSTR and the University of Malaysia, Kelantan (UMK), a vibrant Inbound and Outbound Student Exchange Program has been initiated to promote global exposure, cultural understanding, and academic enrichment among students.

On this occasion, Dr. Lavu Rathaiah, Chairman interacted with the students to encourage and motivate them. During the meeting, Dr. Rathaiah highlighted the significance of international exchange programs in today's interconnected world. She emphasized how such opportunities allow students to broaden their perspectives, adapt to new educational systems, and gain valuable intercultural competence.

He also discussed the expectations and responsibilities of students representing VFSTR on global platforms and advised them to be ambassadors of academic excellence and cultural diversity. She answered students' queries, shared her own experiences of academic exchanges, and assured them of the university's support throughout the program.

The interaction ended on an inspiring note with students expressing their enthusiasm for exploring a new learning environment, contributing to collaborative research, and building meaningful global connection.

VFSTR Promotes Fitness Through 'Sundays on Cycle' Campaign

On 4 May 2025 — In an inspiring effort to integrate fitness into daily routines and promote physical well-being among youth, VFSTR has organized a vibrant cycle rally on Sunday. The event was part of the ongoing 'Sundays on Cycle' campaign, which encourages eco-friendly and health-conscious commuting habits.

The rally witnessed enthusiastic participation from VFSTR students and school children attending the summer camp. With cycles gleaming and spirits high, the young riders pedalled through the campus and nearby routes, spreading a strong message on the importance of physical activity and sustainable living.

VFSTR's initiative aims to foster a culture of regular exercise and create awareness on environmental conservation. The institution continues to support and lead such community-driven campaigns, reinforcing its commitment to holistic development and social responsibility.

Meeting with IQAC Coordinators Successfully Conducted

A meeting with the IQAC Coordinators was successfully held on Saturday [02/05/2025] from 4:00 PM to 5:00 PM at the classroom opposite the IQAC office, 4th floor, A Block. The session focused on strengthening internal quality assurance measures and preparing for upcoming assessments.

Key points discussed during the meeting included:

1. Finalization of the Academic Audit Schedule
2. Detailed planning for the Mock NBA Visit
3. Collection and analysis of Feedback on Institutional Facilities
4. Review and action points from the Faculty Satisfaction Survey
5. Discussion on results and improvements from the Non-Teaching Staff Satisfaction Survey

The meeting served as a proactive step toward enhancing institutional quality and readiness for accreditation processes.
