Vignan's Biomed triumph: Osmania Poster Spotlight: Biomedical Engineering Department

Students from VFSTR participated in the Medi-Tech 2K24 technical fest, which took place at Osmania University, Hyderabad on 22nd March 2024. N. Manogna Naidu, Varshitha Korada, and Esther Shilhi, Dept. of biomedical engineering, showcased their project on Robotic Prosthetic Arm at the poster presentation event. They gained valuable insights by engaging with fellow participants, discussing their projects, and receiving feedback from judges and attendees. Their hard work paid off as they won the 1st prize along with a cash prize of 2000 INR.

Additionally, Mr. Deepak Vadlamudi and Bhavana Srihari, both from the 3rd year biomedical engineering, presented a poster on the Dialyzer reprocessing unit. N. Sanjana and E. Sahithya, students of the 3rd year BME, participated in the Poster Presentation Competition and introduced their innovative concept, the "Smart Medicine Reminder Box."

From 2nd year biomedical engineering, Nikhila (211FA16004), Kavya (211FA16008), and Naveen (211FA16020), actively participated in the poster presentations, and presented the project on "Automatic Anesthesia Controller."

Dr. P. Nagabhusan, the Vice Chancellor, appreciated and congratulated all the students for their exceptional performance, representing Vignan University at this prestigious event.

Embracing Diversity and Innovation: Recent Trends in Literary Studies at the Shodhana Sangalap 2024

The Shodhana Sangalap 2024, a colloquium focusing on Language and Literature, took place on the 13th of April, 2024, in a hybrid mode. The event was graced by the presence of Dr. Mohana Charyalu, the Head of the department, who delivered an insightful speech on "Recent Trends in Literary Studies" at 4 p.m. He emphasized the significance of these trends in the ever-evolving field of literature.

Dr. Charyalu discussed various innovative and thought-provoking approaches that have emerged in recent years, enriching the way we understand and interpret literature. These trends challenge traditional methods of analysis and incorporate new theories, technologies, and cultural contexts. The engaging discussion must have enlightened the attendees on the latest developments and perspectives in the field of literature.

Some of the significant recent trends in literary studies highlighted by Dr. Charyalu include:

1. Interdisciplinary Field: The integration of different academic disciplines to provide a more comprehensive understanding of literature.
2. Ecocriticism: An approach that explores the relationship between literature and the environment, examining how texts portray nature, ecological issues, and human interactions with the natural world.
3. Queer Theory: This trend examines the representation and experiences of non-heteronormative identities in literature, challenging binary notions of gender and sexuality, and exploring the complexities of queer experiences.
4. Cognitive Studies: The application of cognitive psychology to literary analysis, aiming to understand how readers process and interpret literary texts.
5. Transnationalism: The study of literature in a global context, focusing on the interconnectedness of cultures and the exchange of ideas across national borders.

The session ended with a question and answer segment. The participants clarified their doubts and expressed their opinions.

"Vignan University's SAC Cricket Premier League: Celebrated Team Spirit, Skills, and Mixed-Gender Participation"

VFSTR's Student Activities Council (SAC) team has recently organized the SAC Cricket Premier League, the programme aimed to foster brotherhood, a team spirit, and bonding among its members. The league featured mixed-gender participation, ensuring at least four women players in each team. Twelve teams competed in the knockout tournament, with Incredible Dynamites and Logistics Super Lions kicking off the matches on March 20th.

The semifinals saw intense contests between Incredible Dynamites vs Painting Pacers and S&M Smashers vs Core Challengers, showcasing the teams' dedication and exceptional skills. In the grand finale, Painting Pacers and Core Challengers battled it out for the top spot, resulting in a thrilling conclusion with Painting Pacers emerging as champions and Core Challengers securing the runner-up position.

The league concluded with a memorable closing ceremony, honouring the outstanding performances and unwavering dedication of all participants. The event also promoted community engagement, as students and faculty enthusiastically participated in the cricket matches and cheered for their favorite teams.

Internship Review of B. Tech Biotechnology @ Hyderabad

Dr. A. Ranganadha Reddy, Associate Professor in the Department of Biotechnology and the Coordinator of Bioinformatics, recently embarked on a series of visits to various esteemed organizations in Hyderabad from April 22nd to April 24th, 2024. The purpose of these visits was to engage in discussions with industry professionals and academicians regarding internship reviews for students, placements, and PhD admissions for industry personnel at VFSTR.

During his visit, Dr. Reddy met with several prominent individuals, including Dr. P. Nageswara Rao, Dr. Lavanya Joshi, Dr. P. Appa Rao, Dr. R. K. Subramanian, Mr. P. Raghurami Reddy, Mr. E. Narsimulu, Dr. R. Kishorekumar Reddy, and Mr. V. Sridhar. These discussions aimed to evaluate the performance of interns who have been working in these organizations and to explore opportunities for placements for B.Tech Biotechnology and Bioinformatics students. Additionally, they touched upon the possibility of admitting industry personnel into PhD programs at VFSTR, which could potentially foster stronger collaborations between academia and industry.

This initiative by Dr. A. Ranganadha Reddy showcases his commitment to promoting strong industry-academia relationships and ensuring that students gain valuable hands-on experience through internships. Through these internships, students can better prepare themselves for successful careers in the field of biotechnology.

VFSTR's MBA Students Secure First Prize in Three Events at National-Level Management Fest MANTRA 2K24

VFSTR's MBA students have demonstrated their exceptional skills and dedication in the field of management by securing the first prize in three distinct events at the prestigious MANTRA 2K24, a national-level management festival hosted by Vaagdevi Group of Colleges on April 26, 2024. They showcased their prowess in Human Resources (HR), Marketing, and the prestigious Young Manager event. Their achievements are a testament to the dedication and skill of the students, along with the guidance of their faculty coordinator, Dr. Shaik Mahaboob Syed.

In the Young Manager event, S. Venkatesh, a second-year MBA student, displayed exceptional leadership and strategic acumen, securing the first prize. The Marketing event the VFSTR's team, comprising S. Venkatesh, Naga Sruthi, and Krishna, all first-year MBA students, left a lasting impression with their innovative strategies and market insights. The HR event's winners, Mahima and Abdul Ayaaz (both first-year MBA students) and Ravi Teja (another first-year MBA student), exhibited a comprehensive understanding and application of HR principles.

The students from nearly 50 plus colleges and universities participated in various formal and informal competitions at MANTRA 2K24. The spirit of competition and collaboration among the students of the Department of Management Studies at Vignan University echoed through the halls of Hanamakonda.
