Dear Dr. Rajkumar:

We are pleased to offer you a full-time position as Postdoctoral Associate in the Department of Surgery at Boston University School of Medicine (BUSM). Your employment start date is anticipated to be February 18, 2020 based on the estimated processing time of your J-1 Visa. Your monthly salary will be $4,416.67. Your postdoctoral experience will be mentored by Dr. Danny Roh.

This is a grant funded position with a terminal date of January 31, 2021. Your total participation as a postdoctoral scholar at BU may not extend more than five (5) years and is contingent upon your satisfactory performance and availability of external funding. If the funding for this position is not renewed, your employment with Boston University will be terminated on that date.

This offer is contingent on satisfying the requirements of the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 that all newly hired employees must produce proof of their identity and employment eligibility within their first three days of work. Please be prepared to produce the required documentation on your first day of work. The enclosed appendix lists acceptable documents that comply with this law.

All new employees must attend a formal orientation meeting. The Office of Human Resources will schedule your orientation session.

The Boston University Professional Development & Postdoctoral Affairs office (PDPA) offers short orientation sessions for professional development, and opportunities to enhance, support, and promote the postdoctoral experience (postdocs@bu.edu). We encourage you to take advantage of these and other resources offered through PDPA (www.bu.edu/postdocs).

Please feel free to contact Human Resources at (617) 638-4610 with any questions. We look forward to having you join us.

Sincerely,
