Recommendations:

- It is recommended that more training hours are required, especially for speaking and listening skills, to train the students for the exam.
- So far, the students are allowed with two backlogs or no backlogs for the examination. Keeping the previous results and training experiences, the backlogs of a student should not be considered as a criterion to take the examination. Because, the students with backlogs are interested to attend the training and capable to achieve the level of the examination but they were ineligible due to their backlogs. Since the exam is testing language skills of the student so, the students' should be allowed after passing a screening test.
- The training and the examination should be conducted before the semester ends. As many of the students, especially hostellers vacate the hostels during the vacations. These results a low attendance as well the impact of the training doesn't hold long.

TRAINING DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

To introduce students the specific use of English for the purpose of English Proficiency is a student's ability to use English to make and communicate meaning verbally and in writing during their program of study. In this English Proficiency and Communication Skills (EPCS) programme, all applicants must be able to demonstrate they have the English proficiency required for their individual program.

Proficiency in English is usually defined by a combination of skills: reading, writing, listening, and speaking. These are measured by standardized and internationally recognized tests, such as Cambridge English Language Assessment which are usually marked on a band score. The Preliminary English Test (PET) is one of the Cambridge English Qualifications. It is the English language exam that shows you have mastered the basics.

English level B1 is the third level of English in the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR), a definition of different language levels written by the Council of Europe. In everyday speech, this level would be called "intermediate", and indeed, that is the official level descriptor in the CEFR.
