Following agenda items were discussed in the meeting:

1. Approval and Details of the 1st Year Bridge Course Structure Discussed in Board of Studies Meeting-

In the meeting, the finalized structure for the 1st year bridge course was thoroughly discussed and approved. This comprehensive framework aims to seamlessly integrate incoming students into the academic rigors of their respective programs. The course structure has been meticulously designed to address foundational knowledge gaps, bolster essential skills, and provide a robust introduction to the curriculum. Key components include a series of targeted modules, interactive workshops, and assessment strategies that ensure a smooth transition. The meeting highlighted the collaborative efforts of faculty members in crafting a curriculum that not only aligns with institutional goals but also adapts to the evolving educational landscape, setting a solid groundwork for student success in their initial year.

2. Introduction of Moot Courts for Enhanced Experiential Learning Discussed in Board of Studies Meeting

In the meeting, implementation of moot courts for experiential learning was key topics of discussion. The addition of Moot court is designed to enhance the breadth and depth of the academic experience, providing students with a more comprehensive understanding of their field. Moot courts have been strategically integrated into the curriculum to offer students practical, hands-on experience in legal procedures and courtroom dynamics. This experiential learning approach not only enriches theoretical knowledge but also cultivates critical thinking and advocacy skills. The board members commended the initiative, noting its potential to significantly elevate the quality of education and better prepare students for professional practice.

3. Enhancing Student Performance Through Experiential Learning: Insights from Board of Studies Meeting

During the Board of Studies meeting, a detailed review of students' internal performance was conducted, highlighting both strengths and areas for improvement. Members provided valuable suggestions to address observed gaps by incorporating experiential learning into the curriculum. This approach aims to bridge theoretical knowledge with practical application, thereby enhancing student engagement and performance. The proposed strategies include integrating hands-on projects, real-world case studies, and interactive learning sessions. The board members agreed that these changes would foster a more dynamic and effective learning environment, ultimately contributing to better academic outcomes and a more robust educational experience for students.

4. Board of Studies Meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Kalpana Koneru, Interim Director, Vignan Institute of Law.
