Division of Physics

DEPARTMENT OF SCIENCES & HUMANITIES

About the University

VFSTR (Deemed to be University), the flagship institution of the group offers quality academic programmes for the overall development of the students. It has sprawling campus with state of art classrooms, laboratories and sport fields. The university upholds the parents aspirations and students dreams in catering the diversified needs of the them. The institution is NAAC accredited with 'A' grade and ISO 9001-2008 certified institution. The institution is located in Vadlamudi, a suburb of Guntur city. The Institution offers undergraduate, post-graduate and doctoral programmes in Science, Humanities, Engineering and Management. The entire campus is Wi-fi enabled and connected to external world through National Knowledge Network (NKN).

Department of Sciences & Humanities

The department is established during the academic year 1997-1998. It houses the divisions of Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Environmental studies and English. It caters the needs of engineering departments and offers due conceptual knowledge in the backdrop of technical upgradation. The department offers UG and doctoral programmes. The department has competent faculty with high degree of reputation in their respective fields. The department has few curricular and extra-curricular programmes to remain sensitized towards scientific, social, cultural, ethical and human issues/values involved in professional environment. The department promotes interdisciplinary research and it has a centre of excellence (CoExAMMPC) and three research centers under its umbrella.

About Workshop

A wide range of Engineering Materials are indispensable for day-to-day life in modern society and used as basic building blocks in different industries. These engineered materials have vitally contributed to numerous technological advancements in various fields as diverse as medicine and health, national security, information technology, aerospace, telecommunications, structural engineering, transportation, agriculture, textiles, plastics, and the environment. From the functional perspective, the role of Materials Scientist is to develop and synthesize new materials, whereas a Materials Engineer is primarily responsible for creating new products and systems using existing materials and / or developing newer materials and processing techniques.

Workshop Objective

The motive behind this workshop is to throw light on the latest frontiers in the field of materials science creating a platform to remain acquainted of them through eminent scholars derived from academia and research organizations of global repute. This interaction might invoke interest among young faculty, scholars and PG students to thrive hard to extend their horizons of knowledge and research. This workshop also promotes the scientific fervor among participants and establishes scientific collaborations.

Registration Fee:

Faculty	:	Rs.1,000/-
Research Scholars	:	Rs. 500/-
UG / PG Students	:	Rs. 300/-

(Registration Fee includes Workshop Kit, Snacks and Lunch)

Interested Candidates are requested to fill in the registration form and return it to the convener on or before 21st December 2018. Forms may be downloaded from www.vignan.ac.in or copy of the below may be used. Accommodation will be provided on rental basis for limited number of participants on first come first serve basis.
