

International Seminar on “Explore the Research and Funding Opportunities in Europe”

Department of S&H in collaboration with Department of Pharmaceutical sciences of VFTSR has organised an International Seminar on “Explore the Research and Funding Opportunities in Europe” on Friday 30/08/19, The programme was chaired by European Commission Research Innovation Sector Counsellor Ms. Tania Fredricks, initially the programmes was commenced with lightening of lamp and later the chief guest Tania Fredricks has delivered her speech, while doing she stated that the technologies that are invented in Europe cannot be applied to countries like India as these technologies are invented in line with the climatic conditions that re existing in Europe, she advised that to make use of that technologies this should be made in alterations in line with the conditions prevailing in India. She further stated that if the universities like Vignan which are laying big seat and encouraging for Innovative Technologies if supported they can bring those European technologies to India. The other guest of Honour VC Dr M Y S Prasad while speaking said that countries like France are making investments and keen about Return on Investments (ROI) which is very much important and they look for every piece of amount they spent in line with return and focus much on improving technologies. Later the guests were felicitated grandly. The Programme is co attended by CNRS India Director Dr Srini Kavery, Dean R&D Dr G Srinivasa Rao, S&H HOD N Srinivasu, Conference Convenor Dr D Naga Raju, Dr Praveen Kumar, Staff& Students.