

Digital World will take new turns with 5G Technology

CSIR-CEERI Pilani-Rajasthan Principal Scientist Dr Kota Salman Raju said that Digital World will take new turns with 5G Technology. Department of Science & Technology, in support with Ministry of Science & Technology & in collaboration with Department of IT has organised a three days' work shop on "Internet of Things" & 2 days National Seminar on "Recent Trends in Information Technology (NCRAIT-2019)". The Programme began with lightening of Lamp and later the chief guest Mr Salman Raju while addressing the gathering said that the future will be of 5 G Technology, and students gaining knowledge on this technology will have lot of employment opportunities. When 5 G comes to live the speed of internet will increase by 20 times of the existing data speed he further added that surgeries can be done using the 5 G technology and there will be rapid changes and many problems that are going to arise can only be solved with technology and he further added that Quantum Technology if comes to live that will change the world. Later the guests were felicitated in a grand manner. The programme is co attended by VC DR M Y S Prasad, Rector Dr K Satya Prasad, IT Dept. HOD K V Krishna Kishore, Dr B Balaji Convenor, respective Deans, HoD's, staff and students.