

National Level Civil Workshop

On the eve of Engineers day a national level civil workshop was conducted at VFSTR on “Recent Trends in Civil Engineering-2019” JSW cements south India Head Mr Hari Prasad Rao was the chief guest for the program, initially the workshop was commenced with Jyothi lightening later while addressing the gathering Mr Hari Prasada Rao stated that Civil Engineering field has many opportunities, and students should learn more on new technologies in construction field, followed by chemical compositions, ground water development, environment protection, and design techniques. Students will be having the further grip by knowing the basic concepts, later the guests were felicitated. Around 500 plus participants have attended the workshop which was announced by Dr Ruben workshop convener. The other guests for the program are ECRI India Ltd-New Delhi country education head Preeti Malik, Vijayawada Ultra-tech Limited technical DGM Venkata Raman,Hyderabad Sri Sai Nature Technical Limited Senior Environmental Engineer, Srinivas Reddy, Rector Dr K Satya Prasad,Civil Department HoD Dr N Ruben, respective deans, HoD’s, staff & Students.