

National Webinar on Test of Significance by SPSS

Report

- The webinar was inaugurated on 05th June 2021 at 10.00 am and lasted up to 12.00 pm. Dr. R. Ramanan, Joint Director of Collegiate Education, Chennai, Tamil Nadu, was the Chief Guest and the Speaker of the session.
- There was a total of 209 active participants in the session.
- At the end of the session, there was a query session where many participants raised questions and doubts and got explanation from the speaker.
- Dr. P. L. N. Varma, Professor & Head of the Division of Mathematics delivered welcome address and gave some short notes about the need of learning SPSS at present scenario during 10.00 am to 10.05 am.
- Dr. N. Srinivasu, Professor & Head of the Department of Science & Humanities shared some significant points about learning SPSS and added that SPSS is being used widely even non-mathematical areas also. He concluded with short information about our Department of Science & Humanities and University infrastructure during 10.05 am to 10.10 am.
- Dr. S. Parthiban, Associate Professor, Division of Mathematics, coordinated the webinar and Dr. P. Sudam Sekhar, Associate Professor and Dr. T. L. Yookesh, Assistant Professor of Division of Mathematics organized the event.
- Ms. K. S. Keerthika, Research Scholar/Mathematics (Full Time), compered the entire session.
- Dr. S. Parthiban, Associate Professor, Division of Mathematics delivered vote of thanks and concluded the session at 12.00 pm.

