

Teaching Values is the most important Responsibility of Teachers – AP Retd Joint Director of Collegiate Education

Teachers Day was celebrated very grandly at VFSTR, in this regard Dr N Geethanjali AP Retd Joint Director of Collegiate Education was invited as chief guest, and while addressing the gathering she said that teaching values apart from education is the vital responsibility. She said that teaching is an instinctual art, mindful of potential and carving future citizens will be in the hands of teachers. While the chairman Dr. Lavu Rathaiah said that on the occasion of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan birthday, Teachers day will be celebrated. He said that Dr S Radhakrishnan is a Telugu native and he completed his major studies in Nellore and Tirupathi. He further stated that he served for Andhra University for 5 years. Sri Rathaiah said that the life of Dr S Radhakrishnan is highly inspiring the way he grew from a teacher to President of India. The other guest of honour chancellor of University Sri K Rammurthy Nadu briefed that everyone should take the inspiration of Sri Radhakrishnan and touches the success pinnacles. Dr MYS Prasad Vice Chancellor while addressing the gathering stated that teachers should continuously upgrade to the latest teaching techniques and technical aspects for molding the students to reach their successful. During the occasion various sports and cultural activities were conducted and best performers were awarded with prizes. Later the chief guest of honour was felicitated. The program was co attended by Registrar Dr. M S Raghunathan, Rector Dr. K Satya Prasad, Program Convenor, S&H HoD Dr. N Srinivasu & other Staff members.